

Your Blood Test Results

Please find the results of your blood test. This report contains your blood test results with London Medical Laboratory doctor's review of your result, including comments on how they compare with standard reference ranges, and highlighting everything that may need further investigation or follow-up with your GP*.

